

“METANOIA”

Permission Form

Dear Parent or Guardian,

As a member of the freshmen or sophomores class, your son is going to a special event being held by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia called “Metanoia!” This is a youth rally that will feature special guests, bands, speakers, special prayers and thousands of other students from around the Archdiocese. Please read the information at the top of this form, then sign and have your son return the permission slip at the bottom of this form to his HOMEROOM TEACHER by THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26.

** If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Jack or Mr. Williams.

Director of Salesian Spirituality & Mission at Father Judge

Date: Monday, October 30, 2017

Location: Liacouras Center (on the campus of Temple University on Broad Street)

Purpose: YOUTH RALLY

Means of Transportation: A school bus that will pick up to and from the event

Leave school: after homeroom on Monday, October 30 Arrive back at school: by 2:30 pm

Special Instructions: No food or drink is allowed in the Liacouras Center. Therefore you are asked to bring money (please bring at least $15-$20 to purchase the food at the arena). Each student is also asked to bring in a few items to help feed the poor both in this area and overseas. These are the items most needed (and non-perishable): cheerios, oatmeal, whole grain pasta, and boxes of rice. These items are also listed on the Father Judge website. Food items should be dropped off to the student homerooms by Friday, October 27, 2017.
